The session emphasized the advantages of each specialisation, i.e., Advertising and Journalism. Dr. Vaneeta Raney brought into perspective everything the students needed to know from a neutral point of view. Prior to the session, she made sure everyone took a self-assessment test.

The Orientation Session was followed by an Electives Analysis Session for Advertising students on 8th June 2021. Out of eight electives, four had to be chosen for Semester 5 and 6. Considering the combinations suggested by the students, Dr. Raney put forth her own views and explained how each elective would impact them in the long run. She also gave more than satisfactory solutions for those subjects that were not chosen by offering them as short-term courses. After an eminent discussion, suitable electives were chosen and locked for both semesters.

Outcome:

The feedback of participants reflects the following points satisfactorily on:
To understand the importance of Specialisation in Multimedia and Mass Communication

- To analyse the choice of Specialisation in Multimedia and Mass Communication
- To gain knowledge in Advertising as a Course specific Elective
- To gain knowledge in Journalism as a Course specific Elective
