

SIES College Past Student Association: Activity Report

The SIES College Past Student Association (PSA) has had a highly active and impactful academic year. Demonstrating a strong commitment to fostering intellectual growth, social responsibility, and community engagement, the PSA organized and collaborated on a diverse range of events.

1. Collaborated with the Department of Philosophy, NSS, and NCC, to organize an International Yoga Day celebration, promoting health and wellness within the college community and highlighting the importance of yoga in life on 21st June 2024.
2. In association with the Department of Biotechnology, the PSA hosted the Dr. Rajalakshmi Amudan Lecture Series on 20th December 2024. The series featured two insightful sessions: "From Lab Bench to Cancer Diagnostics: My Journey in Molecular Biotechnology" by Ramya Iyer, Scientific Officer, Tata Memorial Hospital and "A journey of learning, growth, and transformation in the Pharma Industry" by Jaqueline J., Senior Quality Specialist Sanofi.
3. Collaborated with the Department of Biochemistry to organize a guest lecture by Ms. Chitra Ranganathan Sharma, Vice President of Quality & Regulatory Affairs, Scribe Therapeutics, USA on 6th February 2025.
4. To promote gender equality and social justice within the college community, PSA participated with the Gender Sensitization Cell & Internal Complaints Committee in organizing the English play "Vhay! I Am Savitribai Phule". Written and directed by Sushma Deshpande and performed by Nandita Patkar, the play highlighted the life and contributions of Savitribai Phule, a pioneer of women's education and social reform, on 15th February 2025.
5. Co-hosted an intercollegiate research poster presentation along with Jignyasa, research hub of the college, in providing a platform for students to showcase their research and foster a research driven environment within the college, on 21st February 2025.
6. To promote social responsibility, in association with NSS, the PSA conducted a blood donation drive at Sion Railway Station on 24th February 2025.
7. PSA also has been actively acknowledging the contributions of teaching staff by felicitating all of them on their superannuation.

