To whomsoever it may concern

About Adveka Foundation: Adveka Foundation is a non-profit, non-governmental organisation [Bombay Public Trust Act, 1950, No. E-33893, Mumbai] that works for Mental Health. Our work focuses on the mental well-being of Caregivers of people with different physical and mental health issues. Adveka Foundation identifies these Caregivers from NGOs, Hospitals and works with them. Our psychotherapists provide Individual Counselling and facilitate Support Groups with these Caregivers. These sessions are designed to increase the Caregivers' Resilience, Healthy Coping Skills and reduce their feelings of Perceived Caregiver Burden and Stress.

Ms. Harini Seshadri has been a part of Adveka Foundation from November 2019 onwards. She was an extremely active part of the social media team, assisting in creating awareness about mental health on all our platforms. As part of the team, she also created content which was specific to our work with caregivers and mental health. Harini also helped our psychologists facilitate a few sessions over the course of her internship.

Harini has been tremendously enthusiastic about the work that was given to her and was particularly good at being a team worker. Her creativity towards creating content that was caregiver and mental health friendly has been great. She is a hard worker as well as nuanced in her work.

Her performance was highly satisfactory and showed dedication and enthusiasm towards her work.

Yours Sincerely,

(Maitreyi Nigwekar Pawar)

Internship letter of experience

URJA Trust, is a catalyst organization that facilitates homeless young women in their journey to access fundamental rights, and focuses on their holistic development, enabling them to make informed choices and live their lives with dignity.

Lokeshwari H. Naidu, completing her Bachelors final year, from SIES Autonomous College of Arts Science And Commerce, interned with URJA Trust from 3rd January till 3rd February 2020.

As part of her assigned tasks she worked on documentation and data work along with supporting the livelihood team by doing research work for livelihood and vocational training opportunities. She also participated in organisation activities/processes such as the 'Drum Circle' and outreach, where the team members go to the railway station to see if there are homeless young women in need of shelter.

Lokeshwari is a dedicated and hardworking individual. We at URJA Trust appreciate her work wish her the best in her endeavors.

Letter of Experience

To whomsoever it may concern,

My name is Vandita Morarka, I am the Founder & CEO of One Future Collective, a feminist youth-led non profit that is harnessing the power of compassionate youth social leadership to undertake actionable change in their micro communities towards creating systemic transformation. Our work focuses on the thematic areas of youth leadership, gender justice, mental health, legal reform, and development policy: through knowledge, action, and consulting.

Manogni Thyagaraja has been working with One Future Collective from April 2019 till date in a voluntary capacity as an Editorial Assistant with The Thought Project, our digital advocacy platform. She has written various significant articles over this time span and also engaged herself in her editorial capacity to fulfil all the work allotted to her. Some of the key tasks she has worked on till now at One Future Collective are:

- Worked on conceptualizing and executing of the Bystander Intervention campaign and the From Me, With Love campaign
- Wrote for The Thought Project

Her involvement in the Bystander Intervention campaign, a campaign we ran in sync with the global 16 days of activism campaign to combat and raise awareness about gender based violence is worth special mention. As a writer and editor, Manogni holds commendable calibre. I am confident she will be able to scale heights, wherever she gets in. I wish her all the very best and trust that she will do well in whatever line of work she decides to pursue ahead.

Letter of Internship Experience at URJA Trust

1st February 2020

To Whomsoever it may concern,

Michelle Fernandes doing her Third Year Bachelors in Arts, from SIES College of Arts, Science and Commerce, Mumbai, was an involved intern at URJA Trust. She interned with us from 3rd January – 30th January 2020.

URJA Trust is a registered NGO, facilitating the journey of homeless young women between the aged of 18-30 years, to lead their lives with dignity, through our holistic development programme.. The young women were forced to leave their homes due to excessive discrimination and violence from their family and/or community due to their gender and often times their caste.

During the internship period, Michelle's tasks included tutoring homeless young women in basic English and also other topics, research on livelihood options for the young women and data filling.

Michelle is a hardworking and enthusiastic worker. She has strong work ethics which were highlighted throughout her internship period.

We at URJA Trust wish her the best in her future endeavours.

To whomsoever it may concern,

The Paddling team conducted a research campaign over the weekend on the 2nd of February, 2020, in a village called 'Bot.' The purpose of the campaign was to better understand the kind of help required in the areas covered in the research and how we could tailor our approach based on that information. Ms. Rashi Patel played an important role and helped meet the aim of the research along with the team very effectively.

She productively took part in the campaign and brainstormed on the conditions of the areas with respect to menstrual hygiene, and what measures could be taken to eradicate the current issues with respect to the same. Our approach will take these things into consideration to chalk out strategies to help the woman in need of it.

We, at Paddling Foundation, appreciate and are immensely grateful to the volunteers for their participation in the groundwork for our research campaign.
