27th February 2025

Urgent Attention: SYBSc, TYBSc and MSc students regarding ABC (Academic Bank of Credits) details on Friday 28th February 2025

SYBSc, TYBSc and MSc students are required (without fail) to submit their ABC (Academic Bank of Credits) and Aadhaar card details to the National Academic Depository (NAD) on Friday 28th February 2025 in an offline session that will be organized by the respective departments.

During this session, you will be required to fill a form with your ABC (Academic Bank of Credits) and Aadhaar Card Name. You need to generate ABC (APAAR) id in case you have not yet registered (through the website abc.gov.in or MeriPehchaan). This information is crucial to access your e-mark sheets on the NAD portal. Prospective employers/ Higher Education Institutes) will now verify all mark sheets through the NAD portal.

Students are required to carry along with them
- Hard copy/Print out of their ABC id proof
- Hard copy/Print out of their Aadhaar Card

Students must also know their Gmail ID and password to access the Google Form.
Failure to attend this session will prevent the student from accessing his/her e-mark sheets and may affect future employment verification.

Class (Aided & Self Finance)	In- charge Department of the session	Venue and timing
SYBSc, SYBA and SYBCom	Department of the Major subject	As announced by the Head of the department of Major subject
TYBSc	Respective department for 6 Units students; Biochemistry department for 3 units students	As announced by the Head of the department
TYBA	Respective department for 6 Units students; History department for 3 units students	As announced by the Head of the department
TYBCom	Commerce department	As announced by the Head of the department
MSc	Respective department	As announced by the Head of the department

I/C Principal