

SIES EX-STUDENTS' ARMY UNDERTAKES TO SUPPORT
INDIAN ARMY

Greetings from your most favourite alma mater

Having flown out of SIES, it's fulfilling to know that most of you have succeeded well in life and are engaged in meaningful enterprises. Over the years as you can imagine thousands of students have stepped on their personal ladders to success and wellbeing. We watch with glee our efforts bearing fruit. You are one of them....

But as you can envision there are many who have not taken off to the higher levels owing to lack of facilities.

Most heartrending are the children of our Army Jawans studying in Army Public Schools. I do not want to dwell into the causes. I just want to help. I tried my ways, but could not succeed. And realized, I cannot do it alone.

It was then that it dawned on me that I have YOU.... my army of ex-students..

On behalf of SIES, your alma mater, I want to donate high end computers and modular furniture to the technologically deprived students of Army public school, Kamptee (Nagpur district).

I found that quite a number of students are very talented and are deprived of an opportunity to blossom. The strength of the school is 1095 with 49 teaching and 12 non-teaching staff. The school is straining to achieve academic excellence and promote studies, values, sports and other co-curricular activities. Many students have brought laurels to the school in academics and in sports. One Ms Delisha Nigam of class II had set a world record of reciting the names of all 195 countries in just 1 minute 16 seconds. !!

This school needs help to make the budding talented students compete with the world outside. This can happen only if they have enough computers to learn from modern systems and fast changing technologies with ease.

We have plans to provide 20 computers and 250 modular furniture at least to the school as a token of our duty based patriotic-philanthropic gesture.

I count on your support for the same. It amounts to approximately. Rs. 30,00,000/- (Thirty lakhs) and your generous contribution only can transform the lives of these army school children.

Looking forward to your generous support.
