

SIES College of Arts, Science and Commerce (Autonomous) Sion (West)

Exam Report for academic year 2022-23

Internal evaluation for the first term of the academic year 2022 for all classes was completed by the end of September. It was done in online/offline mode at department level. Online tests were conducted in the college under the supervision of the teaching staff. Sem end Examinations for Sem III, V and Pg part II were completed before Diwali vacation. Ty results for academic year 2021-22 were sent to university in the month of September. Part I Sem I exam was held after college reopened for second term. These exams as well as internal evaluation of Sem I UG was completed at the end of November. Sem I, Sem End Exam of UG was scheduled in the second term. Results of UG and PG, the exams which were held before Diwali vacation, were declared in the month of December. and the results of Fy classes of UG and PG part I were declared by February 2023. Sem end exams were held offline.

Second term Internal evaluation was completed by January end. Sem end exams of Sem IV and Sem VI were held from first week of March. followed by ATKT exams and FY Sem End Exams in April. All the exams were completed in April. Sy results of Sem IV and ATKT Sem III and IV were declared in May. Remaining results were declared by June second week.

Controller of Examination

Principal

