A Workshop Report

Title of the Workshop: Film Communication: Storyboarding with Stick figures

Organized by: The Department of Mass Media

Day & Date and Time: 30th September, 2022, Tuesday, 8 am to 11 am

Location: Offline, Room no.03, ground floor, SIES ASCS campus

Background:

The Department of Mass Media of SIES College of Arts, Science, and Commerce, Sion (W), (Autonomous) conducted a workshop on "Film Communication: Storyboarding with Stick figures -Creative Learning Through Sketching" for the students of SYBAMMC.

Workshop Objective:

- The main purpose was to guide students through basic drawing methods using stick figures, which will be useful to them in courses like Electronic Media, Film Communication, Ad Design, and Newspaper and Magazine Making.

Resource person: Mrs. Ruchita Karmokar

Participants: 102 SYBAMMC Students

Details of the Session:

Ms. Karmokar began the session by introducing examples of various stick figure drawings and explained where and how they can be used.

- To make the session interactive, Ms. Karmokar assigned two simple tasks to the class. The first task included simple actions like thinking, swimming, falling, and so on.

- For the second task, the students had an option between making a storyboard of six frames for any scene from their favorite movie and making a storyboard for any advertisement of their choice.
- She motivated them to show their respective storyboards on camera so that she could guess the film or advertisement.

Feedback:

- She also spoke about their scope to storyboarding for different types of media.
- Further, she showed certain variations in stick figures and some basic methods to distinguish between the genders of the characters.
- The session was satisfactory and filled with fun and entertainment suitably.

Outcome:

- Students were able to use the artistic tricks under mass communication courses
- The students learned the art of expressing themselves through this stick figures workshop
- Creative Learning through Sketching observed.
