

30th August, 2018

The afternoon began with the camera crew assembling the set for the interview that was going to take place in the Bombay Cocktail Bar, Andheri West. Eventually the set was ready and the program began by 3:45pm, the host Richa Lanchekar introduced the stars in the panel, namely:- J.P.Dutta, Arjun Rampal, Sonu Sood, Harshvardhan Rane and Gurmeet Choudhary.

Followed by the interview the floor was open to us students to ask questions to the panelist. The media students, keeping up to their name asked brilliant questions to which they got felicitous answers from stars and the director.

The day ended with all of us truly having a greater respect for our "Jawaans" at the border, who according to Mr. J.P.Dutta:- "Soldiers are the last people on this planet who want another war, not because they are scared of the enemy ahead, but they are scared to lose the ones behind them."
