

DEPARTMENT OF BOTANY

- A. Title of the Workshop/Activity: Expert Talk: Academia to Industry – Fascinating World of Oenology and Related Career Prospects
- B. Background: The Botany Department's Expert Talk Series - Academia to Industry serves as a vital platform facilitating the seamless transition of knowledge and skills between academic research and industrial applications. This initiative brings together esteemed speakers from academia and industry to share their insights, experiences, and expertise with students, researchers, and professionals. One such lecture within this series was titled "Fascinating World of Oenology and Related Career Prospects," which delved into the intriguing field of oenology and its diverse career opportunities. Through interactive sessions, and discussions like this, participants gain valuable insights into cutting-edge research, emerging trends, and career opportunities in botanical sciences and related industries. By fostering dialogue and collaboration, this series inspires the next generation of botanists to make meaningful contributions while bridging the gap between theory and practice, ultimately cultivating a culture of innovation, entrepreneurship, and professional development within the botany community.
- C. Aims/Objectives: The aim of the lecture "Fascinating World of Oenology and Related Career Prospects" was to provide participants with a comprehensive understanding of the multifaceted field of wine science, known as oenology, while highlighting the diverse career opportunities available within the wine industry. By exploring the intricacies of grape cultivation, wine production techniques, sensory evaluation, and market trends, the lecture aimed to inspire students, researchers, and professionals to consider the vast array of career paths in viticulture, winemaking, wine marketing, distribution, and entrepreneurship. Through engaging presentations, case studies, and discussions led by our expert, participants gained valuable insights into the dynamic and rewarding world of oenology, empowering them to pursue fulfilling careers in this fascinating field.
