NAAC REACCREDITED - 'A' GRADE

Report

A. Title of the Workshop: Need of science awareness among educated people.

Background: During the pandemic in the year 2021 – 2022 department of chemistry in association with Science association had organized Guest Lecture of Padamshree, Dr. Sharad Kale Ex. Head of Technology Transfer and collaboration, Bhabha Atomic Research Centre (BARC), Mumbai via online platform for the Celebration of National Science Day.

Aims/Objectives:

- 1) To explain, how to manage home kitchen-waste.
- 2) To understand risk of waste and its effect on human health.
- 3) To broaden students' minds in the field of research.

B. Location: (Online mode)

https://siescmsmy.sharepoint.com/:v:/g/personal/nitinm_sies_edu_in/ESW-ljphjj5Dpc5exKDkmQwBJGHSxf4mMYxa7u6ECp0TnA

C. Target audience/participants with expected number: 125 participants, including teachers and students, attended the workshop.

D. Session and name of Resource Persons:

Padamshree, Dr. Sharad Kale
Ex. Head of Technology Transfer and collaboration,
Bhabha Atomic Research Centre (BARC), Mumbai.

E. Schedule: The program was conducted using online platform MS Teams, through the e-Video, power point Presentations. It was followed by question- answers session between the resource person and participants. Padamshree Dr. Sharad Kale discussed How to reduce global warming. He explained the correct way of cooking. Second is about environmental awareness i.e. waste problem and explained actually what is zero waste? Explained what self-auditing of materials in our own house is? Importance of reducing wastewater. Benefits of planting trees and sustainability.

F. Outcome: The feedback of participants reflects the following points:

1. Attend more lectures like this in future
2. Offline interaction with these scientists.
3. Helped opening new ideas and thoughts for controlling pollution.
4. Got to know the efficient ways to reduce waste and purify water.
