

SIES COLLEGE OF ARTS, SCIENCE & COMMERCE (AUTONOMOUS)
Department of Biochemistry 2020-21
Report

9th June 2021

Title: “Soft Skill Development”

Objective of the webinar:

1. To foster soft skills in students to enhance employability
2. To prepare students to the industrial sector by preparing them to face interviews confidently.

Methodology: Workshop on Soft Skill Development” by Ms Shalini Gamre founder SaSha Training Solutions was organized by Department of Biochemistry on 7th and 8th June 2021.

Report: Online workshop titled ‘Soft Skill Development’ was organised by Dept of Biochemistry and food Technology and Nutraceuticals on 7th and 8th June 2021. The workshop focussed on the development of professional skills to enhance employability of students. Emphasis was on effective oral and written communication. The session dealt with principles of resume writing, writing of SOP, effective presentations, group discussions, leadership, decision making and facing the interview.

Participants: 30

Platform: MS Teams

Outcome: Students learnt to format their resume/CV. The session encouraged thought-provoking discussions. Participants realised the importance of working on personal attributes, communication abilities and personality traits.

Dr Deepali K. Kothekar
Head-Department of Biochemistry
Coordinator- Food Technology and Nutraceuticals